

SOCIETY

Approaching Marriage of Miss Love and Mr. Moore of Interest—"Cotton Ball" Tuesday

Junior Auxiliary Has Completed Plans For Carnival Affair With Boxes For Governor and Mrs. Conner and Presidents

INCREASING interest in Jackson's social calendar is the announcement being made this morning by Mr. and Mrs. James Sanford Love, of the approaching marriage of their lovely and accomplished daughter, Miss Eloise Love, to Mr. William Alvin Moore, the wedding to be a beautiful "twilight" affair in the First Baptist church early in March. Miss Love is a graduate of the Mississippi State College for Women and also studied at the University of Virginia, being one of the most popular girls of the younger society set in Jackson. Mr. Moore, formerly of Atlanta, received his degree from the Georgia School of Technology and is now connected with the Mississippi Power and Light Company in Jackson.

Love-Moore

Mr. and Mrs. James Sanford Love announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Eloise, to Mr. William Alvin Moore, of Jackson, formerly of Atlanta, the wedding to be solemnized early in March in the First Baptist church.

This announcement is of much interest to a wide circle of friends owing to the prominence of the families and the popularity of the young lovers who are to assume the sacred vows. Miss Love, after graduating from the Mississippi State College for Women, Columbus, studied at the University of Virginia. She is one of the most popular members of Jackson's younger society set and will be beautifully entertained preceding the wedding. Most attractive, vivacious and possessed of all the charms that make life worth while, this fair young girl is outstanding in Jackson just as she is wherever she visits.

Mr. Moore is the fine young son of Mrs. Birdie V. Moore, of Atlanta, Ga. He received his degree from the Georgia School of Technology and is now connected with the Mississippi Power & Light company as manager of the industrial sales department.

Both Miss Love and Mr. Moore have many friends in Jackson who are delighted that they will continue to reside, here.

Miss Love, Bride-Elect of Mr. Moore

Of general interest is the announcement being made this morning by Mr. and Mrs. James Sanford Love of the approaching marriage of their beautiful young daughter, Miss Eloise Love, to Mr. William Alvin Moore, the wedding to be a "twilight" affair early in March in the First Baptist church.